

Help secure the future of Cove Park by becoming a Supporter, Friend or Patron in our 20th anniversary year

As for all artists and charities working within the cultural sector as a whole, the current global crisis means 2020 is a critical moment for the future of Cove Park. Although our plans to celebrate our 20th anniversary this year are now on hold, our commitment to the artists and communities we serve continues. At a time of considerable uncertainty for everyone, providing opportunities for artists to devise and produce new work is more important to our culture and society than it has ever been.

Please join us by becoming a Supporter, Friend or Patron in 2020. We offer several ways to support Cove Park and take part in our programme:

Supporters: £20 annual membership

Friends: £200 annual membership

Patrons: £2,000 donation

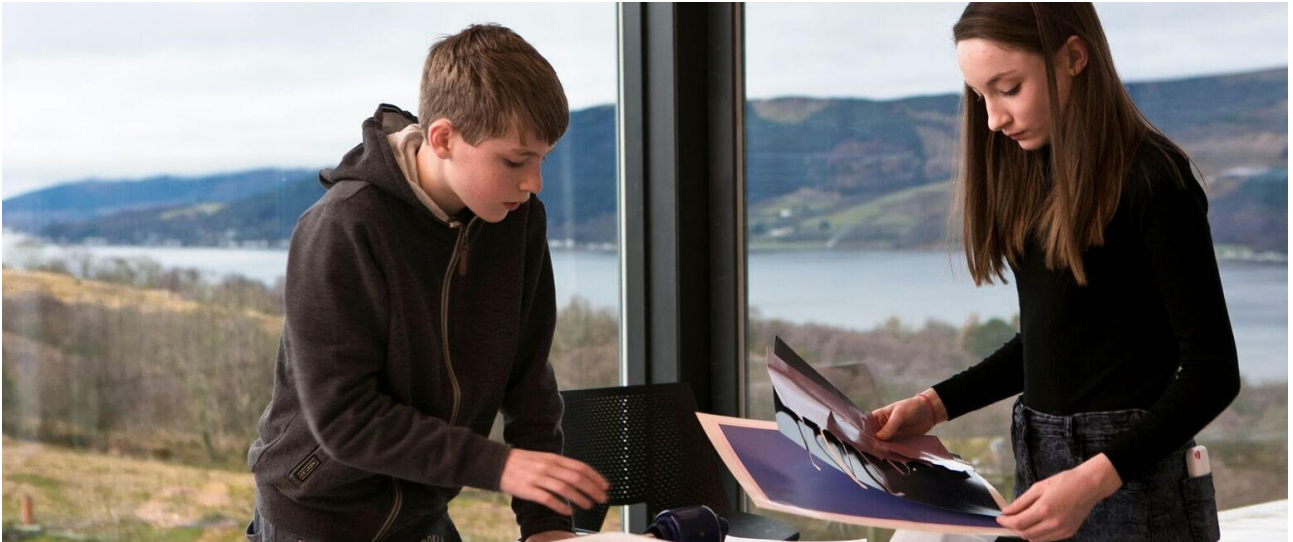

By joining Cove Park you will be invited to exclusive events with our artists – such as readings, summer dinners and studio tours – and have the opportunity to spend time at one of Scotland's most beautiful locations. During this period of temporary closure, we are creating alternative means of taking part and meeting the artists we work with, such as zoom talks and digital projects. Our Supporters, Friends and Patrons will receive biannual updates on our programme and a 20% discount on our limited edition prints and artworks. We will acknowledge your support on our website and on the Thank You board at Cove Park.

Jasleen Kaur, Craft & Design Resident, 2015

“My time at Cove Park was truly transformative. I completed the final edits on two books and produced several stories for a collection. I am so grateful for my time at Cove Park, and I will be seeing the benefit in my writing for years to come.”

Kirsty Logan, Literature Resident, 2017

Hands-On Cove Park Workshop

You may also wish to join Cove Park as a Programme Patron. Gifts of £2,500 or £4,000 meet the costs of a fully funded two-week or four-week residency for individual artists respectively, providing artist's fees, travel costs and materials allowances. Programme Patrons will be offered naming rights for the residency and invited to discuss their interests and requirements with Julian Forrester, Cove Park's Director.

Please donate now to help secure the future of Cove Park, support the artists we work with and take part in our international programme.

Thank you.
