

COVE PARK

Cove Park creates year-round residencies for national and international artists, makers, researchers and academics. Located on an outstanding 50-acre site overlooking Loch Long, the Cowal Peninsula and the Firth of Clyde, Cove Park is just one hour from Glasgow. A unique range of accommodation units and studios, and the award-winning Jacobs Building have been designed to host residencies, retreats and symposia for those working individually and in groups.

ACCOMMODATION

THE PODS

Oak Pod has 2 double bedrooms, each with an en suite bathroom with roll-top bath, a large lounge and work space with a desk, sofa and shared kitchen area.

Taransay Pod has 2 twin bedrooms, each with an en suite bathroom with roll-top bath, a shared lounge space with a sofa, piano and desk, and two kitchenettes.

Each Pod costs £145–£220 per night / £1000–£1500 per week. Prices depend on the length of stay, the time of year, and whether you are an organisation, company or solo practitioner. Please get in touch to discuss possibilities.

ACCOMMODATION AND STUDIOS

THE CUBES

Cove Park has 6 'cubes' – fully insulated, converted shipping containers, each including double bed, double sofa bed, desk, kitchenette and WC/shower.

Each Cube costs £65–£100 per night / £500–£750 per week. Prices depend on the length of stay, the time of year, and whether you are an organisation, company or solo practitioner. Please get in touch to discuss possibilities.

THE JACOBS BUILDING UNITS

The Jacobs Building, designed by Cameron Webster Architects, was opened in 2016. As part of the building there are 2 units, each with a desk, kitchenette and wet room. One has a double bed; the other has a single or king-size bed and is fully accessible. Each unit has its own adjoining studio.

Each Jacobs Building unit with studio costs: £80 – £100 per night, £550 – £750 per week. Prices depend on the length of stay, the time of year, and whether you are an organisation, company or solo practitioner. Please get in touch to discuss possibilities.

COMMUNAL SPACES AND ADDITIONAL STUDIOS

THE JACOBS BUILDING

The Jacobs Building houses meeting, rehearsal and workshop spaces, a large communal kitchen and dining area, and a library with log-burner and sofas. The whole building is wifi enabled and available to residents 24 hours a day.

THE STUDIOS

We also have 3 more artists studios, housed in fully insulated, converted shipping containers.

The studios are charged at a discretionary rate of £20 – £100 per week.

WHOLE SITE BOOKINGS

The whole site can accommodate 12 people (up to 34 if sharing) and costs £800 – £1000 per night, £5000 – £7000 per week.

A full handbook including details of transport links, how and where to buy food and what to bring with you to Cove Park is sent to each resident well ahead of arrival.

To enquire about bringing your project, group or practice to Cove Park please contact Nicola Jamieson nicola@covepark.org

Cove Park
Peaton Hill, Cove
Argyll & Bute G84 0PE
Scotland

+44 (0) 1436 850 500

Please sign up to receive our newsletter and follow us on social media to keep up to date with all our opportunities.

🐦 @CovePark
f Cove Park
📷 @cove_park

Cove Park is a company limited by guarantee (SC201042) and a registered charity (SCO29530)

All images by Tracey Bloxham / Inside Story Photography

ALBA | CHRUTHACHAIL